Ichi-go Ichi-e (一期一会) is a Japanese idiom that translates to

“one time, one meeting”

Rooted in the tradition of the Japanese tea ceremony, Ichi-go Ichi-e expresses a deep appreciation for the uniqueness of each moment, whether found in simple daily simple rituals or one-in-a-lifetime encounters. E meeting is unrepeatable, making it all the more precious.

This elegant set of five small bowls, offered in both warm and cool tones with gloss and matte textures, is desi honor those moments, Depending on your mood, or even the time of day, you can choose a warm tone for coz daytime moments or a cool tone for calm, evening reflections.

Perfect as a housewarming, farewell, host or hostess, thank-you, or self-gift, these bowls are just the right size small bites, from nuts, fruits, and desserts to a scoop of ice cream, a sip of tea, or a beautifully plated appetizer

Lets these bowls accompany and elevate the little moments that matter.